

Crystal Cove Birding Trails. Sailboat Avenue. Drive north a few hundred yards and park in the gravel lot on the east side of Sailboat Ave. This 1.7 mile loop trail winds through coastal hammock. A freshwater pond and the Crystal River tidal marshes are both visible at different points on the trail. Raccoons, shorebirds, woodpeckers, and various songbirds are frequently seen in this area. This is a Great Florida Birding Trail site.