

Redfish Hole. Driveway to Redfish hole is at mile marker 4.0. This series of trails starts in a scrubby flatwoods/ hardwood area and moves quickly to an open area of man-made and natural lakes adjoining tidal marsh. Though better known as a popular fishing site, spoil islands and surrounding coastal communities provide ample opportunity for birding and nature study. This is a Great Florida Birding Trail site.